

Dickie King

Chesterfield County Board of Supervisors

Richard M. "Dickie" King, Jr. took office January 1, 2004 as Bermuda District's representative on the Board of Supervisors.

He is a lifelong resident of Chesterfield County and received a Bachelor of Science degree in education from the University of Mississippi, where he majored in Biology.

King is a former teacher and head coach at College Hill Academy in Oxford, Mississippi and in the Chesterfield County Public School System. The owner of Kings Korner Enterprises, Inc., he has catered events for many people, including dignitaries such as President and Mrs. George Bush, Sr. and General Norman Schwarzkopf.

He is a charter member of the Chesterfield County Chamber of Commerce and has been active in numerous civic organizations, including the South Richmond Rotary. He is a member of Oak Grove Baptist Church.

He currently serves on the Richmond Regional Planning District Commission, the Richmond Area Metropolitan Transportation Planning Organization, the Crater Planning District Commission, and Virginia's Gateway Region Board.

King and his wife, Kim, have five children and three grandchildren.

Prior to representing the Bermuda District on the Board of Supervisors, he served for over seven years on the Chesterfield County Airport Advisory Board and also served as a Chesterfield County Special Police officer and a Board member on the Police Foundation.